SANTA FE, July 27.-Manuel Gonzales, night city policeman, shot a young woman of doubtful reputation in front of the Delmonico restaurant, with a 45 caliber pistol. The bullet struck the woman in the abdomen, inflicting a serious wound. She fell, and was carried to her room. Medical assistance was secured. Gonzales was immediately arrested and taken to the county jail. It is said jealousy was the cause of the shooting. During the preliminary hearing this morning he was charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill. He was bound over to the grand jury under a bound over to the grand jury under a bond of $1,000. The girl will recover She refused to say anything to incriminate her sweetheart.
